

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 30.

TRUE AS PREACHING.—An exchange, in speaking of newspapers, and what is expected of them, very forcibly remarks that "there is no business in the wide world so subject to spurning as the art or trade of printing a newspaper. Public corporations, societies and associations in general have peculiar ideas about papers. They think they ought to print, puff and publish, all for nothing, cards of thanks, tributes of respect, personal communications, or anything else that only interests a few persons, and not the general reader. And thus one and another will sponge. They forget that it takes money to pay compositors—to buy ink type and paper; and, lastly, they forget even to thank you for gratuitously puffing their business or serving the public.

Cleveland G. Arnold, a young man in charge of a soda water fountain in a Chicago drug store, has been arrested on a charge of swindling by replying to matrimonial advertisements, representing himself as a pretty young woman looking for a husband, and inducing the advertiser to send money to enable the would-be bride to go to the waiting admirer, who, of course, waited in vain.

The guard wire, which is intended to protect other wires from coming in contact with the Mount Auburn electric street railway circuit in Cincinnati, broke yesterday, and the guard wire received the full charge, becoming white with heat and sparkling with blue flame until it was consumed and dropped in pieces. The spectacle caused a panic in the street.
